

Object-oriented Information Systems August 2021

Home / / My courses/ / OOIS\_PCOM7E August 2021 / / Unit 7 / / Normalisation in practice /
/ My First Attempt... /

« Normalisation in practice

Pavendran Wimalendran

My First Attempt...

33 days ago

1 reply

Last 32 days ago

Owner
OwnerID{PK}
First name
Last name
Street
Postcode
Telephone

Property
PropertyID{PK}
Street
Postcode
Type
Bedroom
Price
Deposit amount
Pets allowed
OwnerID {FK}

Client
ClientID{PK}
First Name
Last name
Date of birth
Street
Postcode
Telephone

Contract
ContractID{PK}
PropertyID{FK}
ClientID{FK}
Start date
Duration
Deposit paid

Contractor
ContractorID{PK}
Name
Telephone

Maintenance
MaintenanceID{PK}
PropertyID{FK}
Issue
ContractorID{FK}
Estimated cost
Resolved

My tables are pretty similar to Lukman's... I have assigned "Deposit amount" to the property table instead of the contract table.

It's possible that the owner's table and the client's table can be combined into one, but this will give the owner an extra attribute (DOB).

Reply

Maximum rating: -

